GET A TASTE OF WHAT EVERYONE'S BEEN TALKING ABOUT.

Why do many of the country's top chefs buy their fresh ingredients at Costco? Because they know they'll get the highest quality at a terrific value.

We are known for our steaks: Visit our meat department for the freshest cuts of USDA Choice and USDA Prime beef, Grade-A poultry, USDA #1 pork, Australian lamb, and a wide selection of farmed and seasonal wild seafood. We're sure you'll see and taste the quality difference.

We're also proud to offer only the finest-quality fruit and vegetables, delivered to us six days a week for a freshness that can't be beat.

And, did you know Costco produces fresh-baked goods every day, right in the warehouse? Enjoy muffins, breads, pies, custom-decorated cakes and more – all made with the finest ingredients.

From produce to meat, and even vitamins, we have the latest organic items you want, at Costco prices.

We also have a selection of healthy foods, including reduced-calorie snacks, whole grain baked goods, gluten-free items and trans-fat-free choices.

OUR EXCLUSIVE PRIVATE LABEL

Costco's exclusive Kirkland Signature label isn't just a house brand – it's one of the best reasons to join Costco. We have received numerous accolades on everything from our Kirkland Signature cereal and olive oil to dress shirts and even vitamins. Yet, our high-quality items are still priced lower than brand-name equivalents, often more than 20 percent less.

How do we do it? In 1995 Costco began the Kirkland Signature line after recognizing a need for better quality goods at a greater value. Our mission was simple: Create an item of the same – or better – quality than the leading brand at a lower price, and do so by controlling every element of the item's creation, including packaging and transportation. The end result: Kirkland Signature products are incredible quality goods at simply excellent prices.

Take the Costco challenge: Compare any Kirkland Signature product with its brand-name counterpart, and you'll see why so many Costco members rave about their purchases.

WE FIT YOUR LIFESTYLE.

Although many of our members love saving money by buying in bulk, you don't need a big family to enjoy all the value Costco has to offer.

We sell many items the same way as any other retailer – but with the additional value Costco is known for. At Costco, you'll save on designer apparel, electronics, tires, home décor, books, snacks, jewelry, gasoline, seasonal items and more.

While many of our products do come in multipacks, our smart packaging lets you use what you need and save the rest for later.

For example, our fresh, boneless, skinless chicken breasts are a huge value. They are vacuum-sealed in two-breast packs, so you can freeze the entire package and thaw only as much as you need at each meal.

Whenever possible, we try to reduce the quantity of product packaging, which saves resources and helps keep prices low.

So, even if your household is small, you'll still enjoy big savings as a Costco member.

VALUES BY THE DOZEN

As if our fresh departments, quality guarantee and member service weren't reason enough to shop, our legendary Costco savings books bring even more value to your membership.

Several times a year, Costco members receive a book (in their mailboxes and via the Costco app) with thousands of dollars in additional savings. Only members receive these special offers for various products in the warehouses and online.

We offer members our lowest possible prices on every item, every day. The additional savings we are able to offer are a testament to the terrific negotiating skills of our buyers.

Additional savings on the products you love – one more reason to join Costco.
